IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS DALLAS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	§
	§
v.	§	CASE NO.: 3:17-CR-017-B(15)
	§
CAITLYN TAYLOR JOHNSON	§

ORDER ACCEPTING REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE CONCERNING PLEA OF GUILTY

After reviewing all relevant matters of record, including the Notice Regarding Entry of a Plea of Guilty, the Consent of the defendant, and the Report and Recommendation Concerning Plea of Guilty of the United States Magistrate Judge, and no objections thereto having been filed within fourteen days of service in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1), the undersigned District Judge is of the opinion that the Report and Recommendation of the Magistrate Judge concerning the Plea of Guilty is correct, and it is hereby accepted by the Court. Accordingly, the Court accepts the plea of guilty, and CAITLYN TAYLOR JOHNSON is hereby adjudged guilty of Possession With Intent to Distribute a Controlled Substance, in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1) and (b)(1)(C). Sentence will be imposed in accordance with the Court's scheduling order.

defendant is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if released and s be released under § 3142(b) or (c). Upon motion, this matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who se of release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is likely t danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). The defendant is ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2). The defendant shall self-s United States Marshal no later than The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the Court finds There is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted, or The Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed, and This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the defendant ha alleging that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be defended to the United States Magistrate Judge who see of release for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circum 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been show convincing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the	\boxtimes	The de	efendant is ordered to remain in custody.
of release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is likely to danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). The defendant is ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2). The defendant shall self-self-self-self-self-self-self-self-		defend	fourt adopts the findings of the United States Magistrate Judge by clear and convincing evidence that the lant is not likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if released and should therefore eased under § 3142(b) or (c).
United States Marshal no later than The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the Court finds □ There is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted, or □ The Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed, and □ This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). □ The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the defendant ha alleging that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be defended at the set of release for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circums 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been show convincing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if release to the convention of the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the convention.		Upon motion, this matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the conditions of release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c).
 □ There is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted, or □ The Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed, and □ This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). □ The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the defendant has alleging that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be defended at the states of the should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2). This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set of release for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circums 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been show convincing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the 		The defendant is ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2). The defendant shall self-surrender to the United States Marshal no later than
 □ The Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed, and □ This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). □ The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the defendant hat alleging that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be defended at the set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set of release for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circums 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been shown convincing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the 		The de	efendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the Court finds
 □ This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). □ The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the defendant ha alleging that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be defendant (a)(2). This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who see of release for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circums 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been shown convincing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the 			There is a substantial likelihood that a motion for acquittal or new trial will be granted, or release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c). The defendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the defendant ha alleging that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be de 3143(a)(2). This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who se of release for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circum 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been show convincing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the			The Government has recommended that no sentence of imprisonment be imposed, and alleging that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be de 3143(a)(2). This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who se of release for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circum 3145(c) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been shown convincing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the			This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the conditions of release for determination, by clear and convincing evidence, of whether the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if released under § 3142(b) or (c).
Tolombou under $5.7172(0)$ or (c).		allegin 3143(a of rele 3145(d convin	efendant is not ordered detained pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2) because the defendant has filed a motion age that there are exceptional circumstances under § 3145(c) why he/she should not be detained under § a)(2). This matter shall be set for hearing before the United States Magistrate Judge who set the conditions have for determination of whether it has been clearly shown that there are exceptional circumstances under § a) why the defendant should not be detained under § 3143(a)(2), and whether it has been shown by clear and a cing evidence that the defendant is likely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community if ed under § 3142(b) or (c).

SIGNED this 21st day of June, 2017.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE